FORMER GOVERNOR AYCOCK IS DEAD

Dropped Dead in Theatre While Making Speech on Education

IT WAS DUE TO HEART FAILURE

He Had Been In Poor Health and Had Recently Been to a Sanitarium Fortifying Himself for Campaign

Birmingham, Ala., April 4.—Former Governor Charles B. Aycock, of North Carolina, dropped dead at the Jefferson Theatre tonight while addressing the Alabama Educational Association. Mr. Aycock was speaking on "Universal Education, Its Necessity and Benefit." He was about one-fourth through his address when he suddenly staggered back a step and fell to the floor so suddenly that those on the stage were unable to reach him in time to support him.

Water was hastily thrown in his face and he was taken to the wings of the theatre, but expired at once. Death was pronounced to be the result of heart failure.

Governor Aycock followed Governor O'Neal, of Alabama, who had just delievered an address to the association on "Some Educational Problems."

Governor O'Neal and other men prominent in educational circles in the South were seated on the stage during Governor Aycock's address. The remains of the deceased were taken to a local undertaking establishment where they will be held until advice can be received from North Carolina as to their disposition.

On Eve of Campaign.

Raleigh, N. C., April 4.—Charles Brantley Aycock, ex-Governor of North Carolina, who dropped dead in Birmingham tonight, left Raleigh night before last to deliver an educational address at Birmingham, the only speech he has made outside a court house this year.

He had been in poor health for some months and only a week ago returned to Raleigh from Philadelphia, where he spent a month in a sanitarium fortifying himself for the strenuous canvass of the State which he was to begin next Friday, April 12th, with his opening speech in Raleigh, to be followed by one in Charlotte, for the nomination by State primary for United States Senator, to succeed F. M. Simmons.

The other two opponents of Senator Simmons, Governor Kitchin and Chief Justice Clark, began their campaign a month ago, but Governor Aycock had delayed his campaign for several weeks, meantime making an effort to build up his health.

Those who knew him best know he has been afflicted with a malady that might prove fatal, but no such immediate result was anticipated.

The deceased was born November 1, 1859, was district attorney under Cleveland, and was elected Governor for four years in 1900.

He leaves a widow and eight children—six girls and two boys, all minors except the oldest, Miss Alice.

Since his term of Governor he practiced law, the last three years in Raleigh, having removed his residence to this city from his old home, Goldsboro, in 1909, and enjoyed probably the most lucrative practice of any lawyer in the State.

INDICT CLEMENTINE BERNABET.

Jury Finds True Bill Against "Axe" Murderers.

LaFayette, La., April 4.—Clementine E. Bernabet, the self-confessed slayer of 17 negroes in this and other towns, was tonight indicted by the grand jury the true bill returned charging her with the murder of Robert Randall and his family of five here last November. The negress received the news of her indictment with no other emotion than the shrug of her shoulders. Today the girl sang "Nearer My God to Thee" and "Lead Kindly Light" over and over in her cell, while the parish grand jury was hearing the concluding testimony in one of the series of bloody axe murders whose toll was a total of more than 30 lives in towns of Southwest Louisiana.

She talked freely with newspaper men today and gleefully puffed a cigar which one of them gave her. She smiled while re-telling the ghastly details of her confession and got added gratification out of the thought of her photograph appearing in the newspapers. She attributed her desire to unbosom herself to the loss of her "candjah" bag.

Two other negresses, whose names she gave as Mary Conchon and "Irene" helped Clementine in a part of the 17 murders she has confessed, according to her story

Joe Thibodeaux, the "Voo Doo Doctor" whom Clementine declares sold her and her accomplices the "candjah" bags, is not alarmed at the prospect of being involved in the axe murders. He acknowledges the distinction of being a "yerb doctah", but insists he is devoid of criminal intentions. He says Clementine is "hazy" and unbelievable.

ANSWERS LODGE RESOLUTION

Taft's Reply Will Show That Japan Is Not Acquiring Naval Base in Mexico and Will Set Rumors At Rest

Washington, April 4.—President Taft's answer to the Lodge resolution calling for information as to the reported establishment by Japan of a naval base on Magdalena Bay in Mexico, will be designed to set at rest the constant rumors of Japanese colonization in North America and will be a distinct blow at the bugaboo of a war with Japan.

The President's answer probably will be sent to the Senate tomorrow. Although it was denied tonight that Senator Lodge was acting in sympathy with the administration, it was admitted that the President will make use of his resoltuion to set at rest reports of friction with a friendly power.

Chairman Sulzer, of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, after a talk with President Taft, today declared the Lodge resolution was "the merest buncombe" and that Japan had acquired no rights for a naval station from Mexico.

Huntington Wilson, acting Secretary of State, had a short conference with the President about the reply to the resolution. It became known that the answer will be lacking in sensational features and at the State Department it was said that the response would tend generally to discredit reports of Japanese designs on Mexican territory.

"The story that Japan," said Mr. Sulzer, or any syndicate acting for Japan has acquired rights, directly or indirectly, at Magdalena Bay or elsewhere in Mexico, has no foundation in fact. I speak advisedly. In view of our well settled policy, the assertion that the Japanese have acquired a base on the Pacific coast of Mexico refutes itself and is too absurd for serious contradiction by Mexico or Japan.

"The Lodge resolution is well understood by those on the inside, however. It will do no harm, and when the answer is officially filed, the atmosphere will be cleared and we will hear no more of Mexico ceding to Japan a naval base on the Pacific."

WILSON IN WASHINGTON.

Presidential Candidate Confers With Political Leaders.

Washington, April 4.—The circle of Presidential candidates harbored within the corporate limits of Washington in the last four days was made complete today when Governor Woodrow Wilson, of New Jersey, spent eight hours in the capital in conference with friends and Democratic leaders.

Within the week Governor Harmon, of Ohio, and Col. Roosevelt have paid short visits to Washington, while all of the other candidates in both parties are temporary residents of the capital.

At a down-town hotel he later talked with more than a score of members of Congress, including Senators Culberson, of Texas; Williams, of Mississippi; Chamberlain, of Oregon; Gardner, of Maine; Meyers, of Montana; Smith, of Georgia; Representative Henry of Texas, chairman of the House Rules Committee; Representative Burleson, of Texas, and others.

Governor Wilson was accompanied by Walter Measday, his personal secretary, and was met in Washington by Thos. J. Pence, head of the Wilson Publicity Bureau here.

"Our campaign is one depending on friends and their brains," said Governor Wilson. "We have no money. Our campaign has been bankrupt four times, including the present. It is to confer with my friends in the two Houses of Congress that I am here."

HAVE CONTROL OF BANK

Stock In U. S. Savings Bank Transferred Before Injunction

(Special Star Telegram.)

Washington, D. C., April 4.—Regarding a story printed in The Star, March 31st, with reference to a suit filed by James M. Baker against Wade H. Cooper, of this city, and his brother, Thomas E. Cooper, of Wilmington, seeking to enjoin the Coopers from transferring certain stock in the United States Savings Bank, Mr. Wade H. Cooper, president of the bank, said today: "The injunction was filed after the stock had been transferred and fell flat. Mr. Baker filed it out of pure malice in an effort to injure us. We secured control of United States Savings Bank by purchasing stock as we had a perfect right to do, and propose to keep the control as the board of directors is standing right by us."

CRUSHED TO DEATH.

Mother and Baby Killed in Train Collision.

Chicago, April 4.—A mother with her baby clasped in her arms and a 18-year-old sister, were crushed to death today when a Chicago & Alton Railroad freight train crashed into a Kedzie avenue street car. Eighteen other persons were injured, some perhaps fatally.

The victims were Mrs. J. E. Brown, 25 years old, her two months' old baby and a sister, Miss Katherine O'Brien.

The car containing 30 passengers, was in the middle of the grade crossing when the freight train ploughed into it. It was overturned and demolished. The passengers were buried beneath the wreckage.

LIBERAL'S DEFEAT A COMPLETE ROUT

The Rebel Command at Parral Did Well to Escape Annihilation

A VIVID ACCOUNT OF BATTLE

Woman Fought Bravely In Trenches —Newspaper Correspondents Shot—Severe Fire Withered Rebel Ranks

With General Campa's Liberal Army, near Parral, Mexico, April 2. By courier to El Paso, Texas, April 4.—The defeat of General Campa in his attack on Parral today was a rout. The Federal defenders of th city had been reinforced and all but surrounded the Rebel command which did well to escape destruction.

It is officially stated that the Rebel losses were three killed and 12 wounded, but the list undoubtedly is larger as Campa in his flight was compelled to leave the wounded where they fell in the mountains and in the deep defiles and arroyos. Among the slain was Campa's 17-year-old brother

A woman who accompanied her husband on the march, fought bravely in the trenches, handling a rifle like a veteran. Her husband was killed as the retreat was about to begin. The woman secured a horse and attempted to save the body.

The horse tired and began to drop behind. The Federals were steadily pressing the pursuit and soon got her range. She kept bravely on, the target of a storm of bullets until, unnerved by the panic-stricken flight of others, she dismounted, tenderly deposited her burden by roadside and fled.

When Campa had planted his rapid firers and his field mortars, he called up the Mayor of Parral by telephone and demanded the surrender of the city. The latter refused abruptly. The roofs of the churches, the bull ring and one of the city's plazas could be seen plainly, teeming with men from the elevated position occupied by the Liberals. Sam Drebin, of Philadelphia, who has been in many revolutions and is now a captain of artillery, opened up with his rapid firers and the crowds melted as if by magic from their exposed positions.

Fifteen minutes later the mortar planted near the railroad yard began dropping shells in the city but their effect could not be determined. There was no response from the Federals for an hour. In fancied security the Liberals had pressed closer and closer, when suddenly bullets seemed to come from everywhere. Villa had all but accomplished an enveloping movement and Campa awoke from his illusion of safety to find himself in a serious predicament. Captain Drebin declared the fire was the most severe he had ever known.

An American newspaper correspondent, who had attached himself to Drebin's battery, had an exciting experience. He had tethered his horse with those of the officers on the protected slope of a hill where they seemed perfectly safe. And so they were while the attack was in front, but when the Federals' flanking column suddenly blazed out with a fire which raked the hill, every animal in the lot was killed.

That the Federals attained the flanking position unopposed was due to a mistake as to their identity. They were fired upon at first, but Colonel Porra, commanding that portion of the field, declared the column must be that of Major Queveda, who was expected and Porra stop shooting. Quevada, however, still was miles away, engaged in a skirmish of his own.

In another hour the Federal sharpshooters had succeeded in silencing the Rebel artillery and presently the retreat, which soon became a rout, began.

Dreben, with a rapid firer, protected the retirement of the other gunners with their guns and all but the mortar were saved. The Philadelphian was nipped twice by bullets, but his hurts were only skin deep.

Jack Zimmerman, of El Paso, a gunner with Drebin, escaped while Dreben held back the enemy. Presently the El Pasoan came under fire of the Federal flankers. Two horses which he attempted to use in his flight were shot from under him, but he made his escape on foot. Dreben, the correspondent and Ignacio Geterez, a gunner, by this time were alone. Gutierez was shot through the bridge of the nose. Dreben turned to the newspaper man and asserting that he could hold the position for a few minutes more told him to run. The latter made a dash of 20 yards and found a horse secreted in a gulley. He mounted and started on a gallop down hill, but a bullet found its mark in the horse's body and the rider was thrown 20 feet to a pile of rocks. He was stunned for a moment, but regaining his feet he made for another horse wandering riderless some yards away. The latter fell dead before the reporter reached him. At this point Dreben came up with his gun and Gutierez joined them. They still were under fire, but eventually this ceased. The gun was packed on a stray horse and weary adventurers made camp in safety at night 25 miles from the scene of the fighting, having been 22 hours without food and 40 hours without sleep.

AN ATTACK ON CONGRESSMEN

Representative Randell Declares They Are All "Approachable" While Engaged in Legislative Work.

Washington, April 4.—Representative Randell, of Texas, a Democrat, set members of the House by the ears today when he charged that many Congressmen were "approachable" while engaged in legislative work.

"I make the assertion," he declared, "that nearly every member of this House is in the employ of some interest or is subject to some influence and what holds true for the House is equally true of the Senate. I say this with the hope that I may hurt no one's feelings."

The Texas member was discussing his bill before the Judiciary Committee to prohibit any Federal employe whomsoever from receiving any retainer from any corporation engaged in inter-State commerce.

"Five men are guilty of being corruptly influenced, but the fact remains that they are subject to influences, which this bill, if enacted into law, would remove," he declared.

Representative Nye, of Minnesota, Republican member of the Judiciary Committee, took exception to Mr. Randell's allegations.

Mr. Nye said it would be better for the author of the bill, the House and the country if Mr. Randell would appeal from the committee to the House, "instead of reflecting indirectly on the membership of the House."

Mr. Randell protested that he meant no reflection on any one, and said that nothing he had said could be so construed. The incident was dropped.

A. & M. DEFEATED.

Eastern College Won Game by Score of Six to Three.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., April 4.—After holding Eastern College to four scattered hits up to the eighth inning in today's game, Tucker went to pieces and with him the whole Tech team, the players from Manassas securing three singles and a double in this inning, which, coupled with a hit batter and two errors, netted five runs. They added another in the ninth on two hits, an error and a fielder's choice. Jaynes relieved Tucker at this point and ended the scoring.

A. & M. secured two runs in the first inning on two hits, one a two-bagger, and three errors. The Red and White added another score in the seventh on an error and a sacrifice. The features of the game were two double plays by Eastern and one by A. & M., and the pitching of White, for the visitors, who pitched a steady game throughout the exhibition.

Score by innings:

A. & M.	2	0	0	1	0	0	0	0	3
Eastern	0	0	0	0	0	0	5	1	6

Summary: Struck out by Tucker 5, by White 3; bases on balls, by White 2; hit by pitched ball, by Tucker 1; wild pitches, Tucker 1; stolen bases, A. & M. 4; left on bases, A. & M. 5; Eastern 7; sacrifice hits, A. & M. 2; two-base hits, Farmer, Jaynes, Luttrell and Russell; time 1:50; attendance 600; umpire Upchurch.

TWO DELEGATIONS ELECTED.

One Goes Instructed for Taft, the Other for Roosevelt.

Rome, Ga., April 4.—Two delegations, one instructed for President Taft and the other for Theodore Roosevelt, will be sent to the National Republican Convention from the Seventh Congressional district, as a result of the district convention held here today.

The "regular" convention elected J. P. Dyar, of Gordon county, and L. H. Crawford, of Whitfield county, as delegates instructed for President Taft. Nine negroes, incensed at the naming of two white delegates, it is alleged, left the convention hall and elected A. T. Atwater, of Floyd, and H. E. Thompson, of Cobb, both colored, as delegates instructed for Roosevelt.

NOTED EDUCATORS SPEAK FOR SOUTH

Subjects Ranging From Art to Agriculture Discussed at Conference

MISCELLANEOUS PROGRAMME

Conference for Education in the South Holds Profitable Sessions—Address On Marketing of Crops

Nashville, Tenn., April 4.—Subjects ranging from art to agriculture were discussed here today at meetings in connection with the Conference for Education in the South.

After a meeting of the executive committee early today, general sessions of the educational conference were held at which a miscellaneous programme was carried out. A feature of the day was an address by Erwin Craighead, editor of the Mobile Register, on "The Conference for Education to Civic and Economic Advancement."

Mr. Craighead first reviewed conditions existing before the Civil War, when there were no great industries, and no great cities, comparatively speaking, in the South. In this connection he said:

"The educational facilities were limited to the cities and towns chiefly. The absence of good roads made communication in the rural districts difficult. Public schools had small and intermittent patronage. Well-to-do people had their children taught in private schools or by tutors, or taught them at home, and had them 'finished' at Northern colleges or universities."

The speaker then compared the past with the present conditions, pointing out striking examples of great progress that has been made. He spoke it "has now development equal to that "has now development equal to that of the North."

The speaker, later referring to immigration, said:

"We have come now to a new era. I may call it the era of educational, agricultural and industrial development. It has been brought about partly by the changed conditions, the new spirit in the South, and partly by the economic movement, the immigration movement into the South, the land seekers having learned that there is really little ground to fear that the South is no place for them to live in, or their children to be raised in. A point worth mentioning is that the immigrants are for the most part not raw foreigners, without experience, but Americans who have tilled the soil in the West and know what they have to do to establish themselves in a new locality."

Closing with a reference to government in the South, Mr. Craighead declared: "In government there is every sign that the South—always honest in its government—is learning more of what is the meaning of popular government. As a people the Southerners are studying economics. They realize that they have considerable ground to cover, and that to move quietly and successfully they must make good use of their necessities.

"Need of Industrial Education In the South," was the subject of an address by President C. B. Gibson, of the Mechanics Institute, Rochester, New York.

Other speakers before the conference today were: Professor W. H. Hand, of the University of South Carolina, on "Compulsory Education;" Lawton B. Evans, city superintendent of schools in Augusta, Ga., on "A Survey of the Situation," and John Lee Coulter, of the Department of Commerce and Labor, on the subject of "Rural and Industrial Corporation."

His address dealt chiefly with questions affecting the production and marketing of crops, dairy products, etc., by Southern farmers.

Comparing conditions in the South of a century ago with those of today, he stated that almost all of the people then lived in the country districts and produced the things they wanted to consume or use for clothing or for their homes. At the present time, he said, only about one-third of the people live on farms and they must produce not only for themselves but for the other two-thirds of population who live in towns, villages and cities. Farmers now produce for the market, he stated, and they also buy from the market great numbers of things they formerly did not use at all or which, if they used, they made for themselves.

In discussing the production of cotton Dr. Coulter pointed out the benefits to be derived from co-operation. Each community, he said, should have its cotton warehouse, owned by the people who produce the cotton, its own cotton gin, oil mill and compress. Local credit societies for lending money to the farmers would result from the storing of cotton, he asserted, and a federation of credit societies would look after the furnishing of funds. As proof that the plan is feasible he pointed to the work in this direction being done among the grain growers of the North Central States. Similar plans, he urged, should be adopted in connection with the marketing of fruits, dairy products and vegetables.

Speaking of the other side of the farmer's business, the buying of the things which he must obtain from others, Dr. Coulter commended highly the plan of co-operative stores. Twenty-five farmers, he said, in conclusion, could easily begin the movement of buying together and selling together and that the principal need at the present time is for some one person in each community to lead off; others would join speedily.

Equal suffrage was discussed by Miss Breckenridge, of Kentucky, in addressing a sub-conference of club women on the subject of "Public Schools and Southern Development."

Among other speakers at this sub-conference was Mrs. Langdon R. Mitchell, of Richmond, Va.

Activities incident to the conference included an address before club women by John Ward Stimson, of New York, and the organization of the Women Writers of the South.

Another Day's Pursuit of the Outlaws Meets With No success—Allen Kinsman Will Not Betray His Friends.

Hillsville, Va., April 4.—Another day's pursuit of the Court House assassins still at large had brought no news of success from the posses in the mountains late tonight.

Jordan Edwards, one of the Allen kinsmen arrested yesterday, charged with giving aid to Sidna Allen and Wesley Edwards, the only two outlaws of the band who have not been taken, got a grilling at the hands of the detective chiefs today in the hope that he might tell the whereabouts of his kinsmen. The mountaineer was firm, and did not betray them. He scorned an offer that the $1,500 offered for the men should be his if he gave them up. It developed that he is in Sidna Allen's debt. Detectives have found a great many others in this country in the same plight, who fear being suspected of aiding the officers.

A change of venue for the trials of the murderers seems certain. Clerk Goad, the only officer of the Carroll court who was not killed in the assassination of March 14th, is the principal witness for the prosecution. The Allens probably will not be tried in a court where one of its officers was a prosecution witness.

A long distance telephone message was received today from Mount Airy quoting a rural mail carrier as saying he had been told by negroes on his route that a battle had been fought this morning at Volunteer Gap, Va., between mountain detectives and the two uncaptured outlaws, who assassinated court officers at Hillsville, Va. The story was that the fugitives, Sidna Allen and Wesley Edwards and two detectives have been killed. Subsequent reports from Mount Airy failed to confirm the report and dispatches from Roanoke, Va., and other points near the Blue Ridge mountains convinced State authorities that the negroes were romancing.

ENDORSE TARIFF BOARD.

Cotton Mill Men Elect Officers for the Year.

Washington, April 4.—The American Cotton Manufacturers' Association today went on record in favor of a reduction of all those schedules of the cotton tariff shown by the Tariff Board to be excessive. In resolutions unanimously adopted the Tariff Board was endorsed; the proposal to prohibit trading in cotton futures was condemned as an injury to the cotton trade, and an appeal was made to the New York Cotton Exchange for more frequent revisions of its contract prices to do justice to the Southern cotton interests.

Resolutions presented by J. D. Hammett, of Anderson, S. C., and a report of cotton exchanges made by Louis W. Parker, of Greenville, S. C., called specific attention to the contract prices of the New York Cotton Exchange, which it was claimed were often much less than the value of the cotton. The convention adopted resolutions asking the New York exchange to revise the differences between contract and spot cotton every three months, instead of twice a year, as at present.

Senators and Representatives from Southern States were urged to oppose bills introduced in Congress to prohibit dealing in futures.

The following officers were elected: President, W. A. Erwin, West Durham, N. C.; vice president, Stuart W. Cramer, Charlotte, N. C.; secretary, C. B. Bryant, Charlotte, N. C., (re-elected).

The convention adjourned without selecting a meeting place for next year, but invitations were received from New Orleans and Memphis.

A feature of the convention was a report by W. J. Thackston, of Greenville, S. C., upon eugenics, the science of race improvements. Mr. Thackston declared the cotton mill owners of the country ultimately would have to give careful consideration to the reports that are being made by students of eugenics, many of which charge that children are treated as goods and chattels in the manufacturing plants of the world.

"In this country the employment of child labor has been for the past few years the most constant source of both benevolent and malevolent attack upon the cotton manufacturers," said Mr. Thackston. "It has furnished even this great government a chance to exploit the short comings of a few."

FLOOD SITUATION NOT SO HOPEFUL

Waters' Lashing is Telling on The Banks of The Mississippi

SEVERAL WEAK SPOTS DEVELOP

Water At Memphis Is Very Near the Dead Line and If It Rises Much Higher The Levees Will Not Hold It

PRESENT SITUATION

At Hickman, Ky., 3,500 refugees, including the 2,000 made homeless when factory district was submerged. Distress relieved when food and tents were portioned out yesterday.

At Columbus, Ky., 800 to 1,200 driven from homes, encamped on hills overlooking town.

New Madrid, Mo., 800 homeless; business and residence section flooded with three to five feet of water.

In Dorena, Mo., community of 900 to 1,000 driven from homes, rescued by Hickman, Ky., residents; many head of live stock lost.

Memphis, Tenn., twelve hundred driven from homes on the north section; water plant out of commission; authorities warn residents of close in district to boil water before using.

At Craig Landing, Mo., eleven employes of Mengel Box Company, of Hickman, Ky., endangered by remaining in camp when 39 others were rescued.

Hundreds of steam boat landings between Hickman, Ky., and Arkansas City submerged.

Crest of rise not yet in sight, but heavy volume of water moving southward at record-breaking stage.

Memphis, Tenn., April 4.—While all main levees are holding, the flood's lashing is telling on the banks of the Mississippi river and tonight the situation is not so hopeful. Several weak spots have developed, especially at Mount City, Ark., and in the Reel Foot levee west of Hickman, Ky. Large forces of laborers and volunteers are at work bolstering up the sloughing embankments and piling sand baks where the water is lapping the crest.

Another day of sunshine favored those fighting back the waters and a bulletin tonight from the headquarters of the government engineers, who are directing the fight, expresses confidence that the battle will be won. At Memphis the water is within two inches of the 44-foot "dead line" set by S. C. Emery, government forecaster. Mr. Emery is of the opinion that the levees cannot stand up under the strain of more than 44 feet. Reports from various sources today were that the Reel Foot levee had gone out and that the flood was pouring over populous farming lands. These reports were unfounded. Late tonight reports are that the levee is still holding, although the situation is grave.

South of Memphis the levees are reported strong and, while thousands of acres of low lands are under water, there has been no breaks nor reports of serious danger. Refugees from the flooded territory are flocking into the cities and towns on the high lands by the thousands.

Conditions in the flooded cities of Hickman and Columbus, Ky., were relieved today when foodstuffs and tents were brought in.

Several thousand refugees are being cared for at Hickman. Columbus is almost entirely flooded.

Aid Tendered Memphis

Memphis, Tenn., April 4.—Mayor E. H. Crump, of Memphis, said today that he had received a number of telegrams from mayors of large cities, among them Cleveland, Ohio, expressing sympathy for and tendering aid to Memphis because of the Mississippi river overflow. Mayor Crump attributed these telegrams to grossly exaggerated reports sent out describing the situation. A statement issued today signed by him says in part:

"Memphis has 19 square miles, and of this territory not over eight blocks contiguous to Bayou Gayoso is affected by the overflow. The commercial interests in the city are not affected; and, with the exception of a few people who live in the small overflowed district, largely made up of negroes who have moved time after time before on account of high water, the rest of the city is not affected."

Cairo is Isolated.

Cairo, April 4.—Cairo is without train service and is almost surrounded by water because of the breach early today of the Mobile & Ohio levee, which protected the drainage district. All railroads pass through the drainage district, which is now under from five to 15 feet of water.

The lives of 500 were endangered and property valued in excess of $5,000,000 was submerged when the Mississippi river tore a crevasse 125 feet long in the dyke.

The levee broke after more than 300 workmen had fought for five hours to fill a depression 70 feet long and five feet deep.

Five hundred men were fighting on the Big Four levee trying to stem the rise of the Ohio. Fearing this dyke would not hold under the strain, a tug was sent out to bring the workers in.

The levee broke near the bridge junction. The river overflowed the "Y" levee before reaching the Mobile & Ohio embankment.

Two levee patrolmen who were directly in front of the crevasse narrowly escaped death. The water hurled them so it was with difficulty that they reached the embankment.

The territory flooded is just north of Cairo and comprises about 9.000 acres. The manufacturing plants in the district are the Chicago Mill & Lumber Company; Greer, Wilkerson Company; The Pioneer Coal & Shaft Company; The Farmers' Handy Wagon Company, which recently purchased the plant of the Modern House Building Company; the Sears Roebuck plant, the Indian Refining Company and the Weis-Peterson Box Company.

Besides these plants the lumber yard of Upham Agler, with millions of feet of hardwood lumber, was submerged. The Chicago mill also had a large stock of lumber. It is estimated that the number of homes, business houses and other structures flooded in the drainage district number nearly 1,000.

Future City, a negro settlement in the flooded territory, has a population of more than a thousand. Urbandale, with a white population of about 100, had many well built homes. No loss of life is reported thus far.

The city of Cairo proper is protected from the flooded section by a system of cross levees and the big force of men at work on the drainage levee have been thrown around the Cairo levee. These men are raising and strengthening the dyke so that it will be safe against any stage of flood.

The gauge this morning registered 53.9 feet, the same as last night. This made a rise of .2 foot in 24 hours.

Tents Offered Sufferers.

Columbus, O., April 4.—Governor Judson Harmon tonight telegraphed to Governor J. B. McCreary, of Kentucky, and Governor Ben W. Hooper, of Tennessee, tendering the use of tents for the flood sufferers in those

Rations for Sufferers

Washington, April 4.—President Taft today directed the quartermaster general's department of the army to furnish rations to any sufferers of the Mississippi and Missouri river floods who are found to be in want. The President also promised Senator-elect James and Representative Russell, of Kentucky, to do anything in his power to aid those made homeless and deprived of the necessities of life by the flood.

A resolution is now before the House committee on appropriations which would appropriate $250,000 at the President's disposal for the relief of the homeless in the flooded districts His order for the distribution of army rations did not call for any special authorization by Congress.

Several Persons Drowned

Memphis, Tenn., April 4.—A telephone message from Hulbert, Ark., at 11:30 tonight reported a break in the main levee, a mile south of that town. A later report, however, was that the levee was still holding, but is dangerously near the breaking point.

According to refugees who made their way today to Charleston, Mo. from the inundated towns of Bird's Mill and Wyatt, several persons have been drowned and others are clinging to housetops and trees awaiting rescue Charleston is without craft to go to their assistance but gasoline launches are en route from Poplar Bluff and Morehouse and should arrive early to morrow

All communication with the two villages has been cut off. Dyersburg, Tenn., reports the towns of Ridgley in that vicinity under two feet of water. Every saw mill, the principal industry in the county, is out of commission.

Negro Landlord Disappears.

Chas. Michael, colored, who with Chas. Williamson, another negro, conducts a boarding house upstairs at the southwest corner of Second and Market streets, is reported to have disappeared from his place of business early Wednesday morning and has not been seen since. He arose at an early hour and left the house, apparently on his way to the Palace Market to purchase meat for the morning meal. He did not return and Williams and others instituted a search for him, which did not prove successful. It was stated at the Palace Market that Michael did not come there Wednesday morning. His friends are uneasy over his prolonged absence, fearing that he either met with foul play or committed suicide.

ANSWER FILED YESTERDAY

To Complaint in Suit Against Tidewater Power Company

Answer was filed in the Superior Court yesterday in the suit of Frank Herbst vs. Tidewater Power Company, wherein the defendant is suing for damages alleged to have been incurred when he was put off one of the suburban cars of the company on the 27th day of last August, following the refusal of the conductor to sell him six tickets for 25 cents.

The answer of the defendant alleges that the plaintiff boarded one of its cars at Wrightsville Beach on the 27th day of last August and that when the conductor asked him for the fare he tendered 25 cents, asking for six tickets for the same, knowing that the conductor had no such tickets and was not authorized to sell tickets, and further knowing that same could only be sold by the defendant's ticket agents, at regular established places along the line, and on cars between certain points between which the agents usually travelled for the purpose of selling tickets, which points did not extend to the beach at that season of the year, and seldom beyond the crossing known as the Wilmington-Wrightsville turnpike crossing, two miles from the defendant's terminal, all of which, it is alleged, was known to the plaintiff.

It further set forth that there had been no misunderstandings, personal controversies and bickerings between the plaintiff and the general manager of the defendant company. It alleges that the plaintiff had on previous occasions refused to pay his fare under similar circumstances, and that on several occasions the conductors had allowed him to ride without collecting the fare, which was unknown to the plaintiff. On one such occasion, the answer sets forth, the company learned of the occurrence and sent the plaintiff a polite letter, requesting the fare, and calling attention to the rules and regulations of the company governing such matters.

In view of these circumstances, the answer sets forth, that the defendant company is informed and believes that actuated by malice and spleen toward some of the defendant's employes or the company generally, and a desire to institute a suit against the defendant, the plaintiff purposely repeated his conduct on August 27th, and purposely compelled the defendant to the necessity of requesting him to leave its car.

JESSE MASON ARRESTED.

White Man Charged With Robbing His Uncle's Store at Middle Sound.

Jesse Mason, a white man, was arrested last evening by Special Officer Melvin Horne on a warrant from Justice Harriss' court, charging him with storebreaking. He was committed to jail last night by Justice Harriss in default of $500 bond.

It is alleged that Mason and a confederate entered the store of C. R. Mason, an uncle of the man under arrest, at Middle Sound last Monday night, robbed the cash drawer and attempted to blow open the safe. The officers hoped to make another arrest soon.

What evidence the officers based their arrest on, or what clue led up to the arrest, Justice Harriss did not care to give out last night. He did not think it best to do so until Mason's alleged confederate is under arrest. Mason will probably be given hearing before Justice Harriss within the next few days.

Mason was convicted of highway robbery several years ago and was sentenced to a term in the State penitentiary. He was pardoned by the Governor. He was accused of holding up Mr. Geo. R. Smith, on the East Wilmington road, just on the outskirts of the city.

PENALTY WAS AFFIRMED.

A $20,000 Fine Against Merchants and Miners' Transportation Co.

New Orleans, April 4.—A penalty of $20,000 fine imposed by Judge Emory Speer upon the Merchants & Miners' Transportation Company, in the United States District Court was affirmed here today by the United States Circuit Court of Appeals. The case practically involves the giving of rebates to shippers through the application of freight rates lower than those filed with the Inter-State Commerce Commission. The Merchants & Miners' Transportation Company offered testimony intended to show that it was honestly mistaken as to the precise rates legally applicable to the shipments described in the indictment. The rates were filed with the Inter-State Commerce Commission by the Atlantic Coast Line and Seaboard Air Line railroads and were applicable to shipments moving from Philadelphia. by way of Savannah, to Jacksonville, Fla., the transportation by water from Philadelphia to Savannah being furnished by the Merchants & Miners' Company.

The steamship company filed with the commission concurrence in the tariff. Judge Speer ruled that railways and steamship companies were bound legally to know all rates established by them and that any testimony tending to prove that the incorrect rate had been exacted by inadvertence was not admissable.

Thus ruling was sustained by the Circuit Court and the fine was imposed in accordance with Jude Speer's decision. In this case the rebates were given to Miller & Sons, grain dealers, of Philadelphia, Pa.

Knoxville, Tenn., April 4.—Rev. Frank Richardson, D. D., died at his home in Fountain City today aged 81. He had been a minister of the Methodist church, South, for 58 years and had held charges in East Tennessee, Virginia and West Virginia.

BASEBALL THIS AFTERNOON.

Donaldson Military School and Wilmington High School to Play.

The Donaldson Military School baseball team will arrive in the city at 10:15 this morning from Fayetteville, accompanied by Mr. W. P. Gelzer, coach and manager, and will play a series of two games with the Wilmington High School team, the first game this afternoon and the other tomorrow afternoon. Both games will be called at 3:30 o'clock and the price of admission will be 25 cents for adults and 15 cents for children.

The Donaldson boys are determined to win one, if not both, of the games to atone for defeats in basketball and football, which they suffered at the hands of the Wilmington boys earlier in the season. They have been practicing hard for the games.

The Wilmington boys, under the coaching of Prof. Hamilton, have developed into a hard hitting and aggressive ball team. They have been practicing every afternoon this week and hope to come out victorious in the series. The following will compose the Wilmington team: C. Burnett and H. Shaw, as batteries; R. Burnett, E. McIntire, Jackson. Houston, infielders; Litgen, Devane, Andrew Merriman, Sneed, ourfielders; Williams and Wright, substitutes.

Opelika, Ala., April 4.—Mrs. Amanada Dunn, aged 55; Cleveland Dunn, her son, aged 23; and Mildred Dunn, aged 2, daughter of Cleveland Dunn, were burned to death early today in a fire which destroyed the home of Milton M. Dunn, treasurer of Lee county, a few miles south of Opelika. Cleveland Dunn lost his own life and that of his babe in an heroic endeavor to save his mother.

Milady's Toilet Table.

By Mme. D'MILLE.

A simple home treatment that keeps the hair fine, clean, fluffy and glossy is dry shampooing once or twice a month with therox. To prepare the powder, put a cupful of cornmeal (or four ounces of powdered orris root) in a fruit jar and mix with it a small original package of therox. Sprinkle a little on the head and brush it out thoroughly, and it will take all dirt, dandruff and excess oil with it.

A luxurious everyday toilet necessity of the choicest materials can be made at home at little cost by simply dissolving an original package of mayatone in a half-pint witch hazel. Cover the face, neck and arms with this solution, and its purity, fineness and velvety softness will prove desirable and refreshing to the most sensitive skin. It beautifies without that "powdered" appearance—and "holds" as no powder does.

A splendid remedy for sores, skin eruptions, pimples, eczema and similar beauty destroyers is Mother's Salve. It heals cuts, burns and scalds without leaving a scar, and is recommended for obstinate sores. It is antiseptic as well as healing, and tends to prevent blood poisoning.

Probably nothing is more humiliating to a woman than hairs on her face. However, these can be quickly removed by applying delatone paste. Mix enough powdered delatone with water to cover the hairs; leave on for two minutes, then wipe off, wash the skin, and the hairs will be gone.

Pensacola, Fla., April 4.—An option on a controlling interest in the Consolidated Naval Stores Company of this place, held for several weeks by J. B. Duke and other large stockholders of the American Tobacco Company, expired last Monday and it has become known that a request for a renewal had been refused. It is said that the impending deal involved about $10,000,000. Naval stores men in Savannah, Jacksonville, Pensacola and Gainesville, Fla., are said to have been interested.

DAY'S NEWS AT THE CAPITAL

Commission Makes Order Requiring S. A. L. to Receive From A. C. L. at Sanford, Carloads Fertilizer From Acme.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., April 4.—The corporation commission has made an order requiring the Seaboard Air Line Railroad Company to receive from the Atlantic Coast Line at Sanford carload shipments of fertilizers shipped from Acme, near Wilmington, to Cameron and Lemon Springs. The Seaboard demanded full local freight rate on the shipments from Sanford to the destination instead of allowing a 25 per cent. reduction under joint haul regulations. The order follows:

"Acme Manufacturing Co., and J. J. Edwards, and M. McL. McKeithan, vs. Seaboard Air Line Railway. Refusal to accept and forward shipments.

"Travis, Commissioner.

"In this matter it appears that the above named company shipped from Acme, North Carolina, near Wilmington to Cameron and Lemon Springs, via Sanford, three carloads of fertilizers on the 9th, 12th and 25th days of March, respectively, in cars numbered PRR 16863, NYC&H. 61601 and N&W 21947.

The consignor directed that these cars be forwarded via the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad to Sanford and thence via the Seaboard Air Line Railway to destinations, the destinations being on the Seaboard Air Line Railway, Cameron being 12 miles from Sanford, and Lemon Springs seven miles from Sanford, prepaying the freight upon said shipments to their destinations according to the rates fixed by this Commission less the 25 per cent. joint haul reduction provided by statute.

The Seaboard Air Line Railway refuses to accept or forward either of said cars unless local rate from Sanford to the destinations, contending that it cannot be made to accept the same at the said joint haul reduction.

The Commission is of opinion that the rate paid on said shipments is the proper and legal rates and that it is the duty of the Seaboard Air Line Railway to accept and forward said cars at said rates; it is, therefore,

Ordered, That said Seaboard Air Line Railway do forthwith accept and forward the said cars of fertilizers so shipped and tendered it at Sanford, North Carolina, and that hereafter it accept and forward all like shipments tendered it under the same conditions, the freight being tendered or paid to it for its part of the haul at the local rates less the said 25 per cent. joint haul deduction.

A Roosevelt Club was formed here this afternoon with Col. J. C. L. Harris, as president, and A. V. Dockery, secretary. An executive committee of 15, representing various sections of the county, was appointed. The club changed its organization from "club" to the "Roosevelt Committee" to work for Roosevelt instruction of delegates from Wake county to the State convention. There were only five present, Col. Harris, named as president and chairman being absent. However, he says he will serve, but wishes Roosevelt had gotten into the race three months before he did, believing he would have had a better show to win over Taft than he now has.

Jno. Ross, the Cleveland county negro, who is under sentence to die in the electric chair for the murder of Jno. Dixon and his wife near Shelby, gets another reprieve from Governor Kitchin, this time to August 14th. The former reprieve by the Governor was to April 12th. This second reprieve is also at the request of the solicitor and other officers of Cleveland county in the hope of using Ross in ferreting out and convicting some accomplice in the foul murder, the atrocity of which startled the whole country.

May 16th is the date on which the North Carolina Text Book Commission is to make final adoption of the histories, State and National, to be used in the public schools during the next five years, the adoption of histories having been left open from the adoption that worked the members of the commission so strenuously last Summer and Fall.

In connection with the strenuous fight that Mr. Chas. L. VanNoppen is making against the North Carolina Society Colonial Dames and the State Historical Commission and the unveiling of the tablet in memory of the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence May 20th, 1775, it is being pointed out in State official and literary circles here that Mr. VanNoppen's biographical History of North Carolinians bears the seal of the State stamped in gold as one of the features of the cover and this bears the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence date of May 20th. So that his own published books amount to a commemoration of this event at least to that extent.

A one-mile stretch of model improved road is to be constructed at once by the Wake county commissioners from the Glenwood city limits out Fairview road to the Raleigh Country Club. The Commissioners will advertise for bidders for this work, leaving the proposal of materials to be used to the bidders. Then experts will be called in to pass on the bids received before the contract is awarded. It is to be the finest piece of road yet built in the county. There is nearly a mile of the worst street that Raleigh has so far as deep mud during the Winter months is concerned, that the city will have to take care of before the model road the county is to build will be of any special service. This is to be taken care of amply, however, during the coming Summer.

Comrade Steven Drake died at the Soldier's Home this morning aged 71 years. He came to the Home January 20th, 1912, from Person county. He served in the Confederate army as a member of Company H, 24th Regiment.

Mrs. Caroline Harvey Ashe, wife of Mr. Jno. Grange Ashe, died at their home in this city this morning. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Harvey, of this city, who together with her husband and two brothers and a sister, survive her.

Ex-Governor Chas. B. Aycock has gone to Birmingham, Ala., to deliver an address in connection with the Southern Educational Conference in session there. He is to return to the city next week and set about preparing for the opening of his campaign for the United States Senate. He has arranged for ex-Governor Robert B. Glenn to make the speech introducing him when he delivers his opening campaign speech in the big Raleigh auditorium April 12th.

TOBACCO EXPERIMENT WORK.

Federal and State Demonstration Work in Granville Makes Good.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Oxford, N. C., April 4.—An interview with Mr. E. C. Moss, assistant in the Federal tobacco experiment work, brought out some interesting facts about the demonstration in Granville county. This experiment station is located about two miles west of Oxford and is now entering upon the second year of its operation. It is conducted jointly by the North Carolina Department of Agriculture and the United States department. There are two other similar stations in the State, one in Rockingham and the other in Pitt county.

The purpose of this work is thus outlined by Mr. Moss. It is a well established fact that the finest grades of tobacco cannot be grown successfully on rich soil. Wherever this is attempted, the quality becomes impaired. This necessarily holds the yield down to a very low average in pounds. As an illustration, no successful farmer will attempt to raise a fine grade of tobacco after a crop of cow peas or clover. The excessive amount of nitrogen produces a coarse plant that sells at a very low price on the market. This Granville station, therefore, has for its distinctive purpose the discovery through experiments of a way to increase the yield without affecting the quality of the tobacco.

The procedure is going forward along three distinct lines; fertilizer experiments, crop rotation, and variety tests. In the fertilizer tests the different sources of nitrogen, phosphoric acid and potash are being tested out separately in order to find those that will give the largest yield without lowering the quality. These separate chemicals are then combined into a complete fertilizer and tested very thoroughly both as to the different mixtures and different quantities. In the second feature a series of experiments are planned to grow in rotation with tobacco, and at the same time keep up the humus supply in the soil. It is hoped that it can be proven that a proper application of phosphoric acid and potash in the right quantities and proportion will enable a farmer to produce a good crop of tobacco in rotation with crimson clover or cow peas and thus greatly reduce his fertilizer bill by getting his nitrogen through legumes as he does for corn and cotton.

The third feature, the variety test, is expected to help the farmer find a variety that will grow heavier and at the same time hold its quality. A number of local kinds are tested, foreign varieties introduced, and a numerous series of crosses undertaken. All or nearly all of these experiments are without the range of the regular farmer anr Mr. Moss has great hopes that with sufficient time and funds he can bring about improvements in the growing of this important crop that will add thousands of dollars to its value and the income of those engaged in its culture.

The commissioners of the county are co-operating with the two departments of agriculture. They furnish the land on the county home farm and also have built a curing barn and furnished other aid in taking care of the crop. Much interest is manifested in this work by the leading farmers of the county and it is expected that within the next three or four years this experiment station will be an important factor in developing the agricultural resources of the county as well as this whole section of the State known as the bright tobacco belt.

In this connection it might be mentioned that the tobacco crop of the county this year sold for over $1,500,000. The sales in Oxford and Creedmoor, the two markets of the county, aggregated about 10,000,000 pounds.

NAVAL RESERVE SHOT DOWN.

Wounded Man Was Attempting to Quell Disturbance.

Raleigh, N. C., April 4.—While the United States cruiser Elfrida, now in service under State Fish Commissioner on cruise in Eastern North Carolina waters, enforcing new State fisheries laws concerning use of unlawful nets, was aport at Elizabeth City today, a regular naval seaman, named Raymond Harvey, from Maryland, was shot and dangerously wounded by Pugh Robinson, of Edenton, N. C., a member of the North Carolina Naval Reserves, the company of the reserves being aboard the cruiser.

This evening he was given a hearing at Elizabeth City and held for court under $2,000 bond. The shooting was caused by Harvey attempting to quell a disturbance aboard ship, in which Robinson was a party.

Almost a Miracle.

One of the most startling changes ever seen in any man, according to W. B. Holsclaw, Clarendon, Tex., was effected years ago in his brother. "He had such a dreadful cough," he writes, "that all our family thought he was going into consumption, but he began to use Dr. King's New Discovery, and was completely cured by ten bottles. Now he is sound and well and weighs 218 pounds. For many years our family has used this wonderful remedy for coughs and colds with excellent results." It's quick, safe, reliable and guaranteed. PEANUT CAUSED DEATH

Lodged In Child's Windpipe—Rec. C. W. Blanchard to Kinston

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston, N. C., April 4.—A small son of Noah Hemby, of Snow Hill, died from a peculiar cause while being brought to the McDaniel Memorial Hospital here. The child had a peanut lodged in its windpipe, and the efforts of the Snow Hill physicians to dislodge it proving futile, he was rushed to this city, dying shortly before arriving at the hospital of strangulation.

Rev. C. W. Blanchard, of Wilson, has formally announced that he will accept the pastorate of the First Baptist church here, to begin on May 1st. In the meantime, Rev. C. A. Jenkins, a noted religious orator and writer, will fill the pulpit. The pastorate has been unfilled for several months, since the removal of Rev. C. A. Upchurch to Tennessee.

The first games of the local high school team, with Newbern and Wilson, will be played on the grounds here tomorrow and Saturday. Other games in the near future will be with Wilmington, Washington, Rocky Mount, Goldsboro and possibly Raleigh.

Two Real Estate Deals

Mr. E. L. Davis yesterday purchased from Mr. Jas. H. Watters, through the Hanover Realty Company, a handsome lot on Princess, 17 feet west of 17th street, 66x165 feet in size, for a consideration understood to be in the neighborhood of $2,000. Mr. Davis will erect a fine dwelling on the property. The Hanover Comuany has also sold to Mr. Jos. J. Loughlin, for a consideration of $4,000, a lot on South Third street, between Orange and Ann, adjoining the lot recently sold to Mr. Jas. F. Woolvin.

Selling Whiskey Charged

Paul Greenburg, a white man, was arrested yesterday about noon by Patrolman A. L. Long at his store at Eighth and Wooster streets, on a warrant charging him with violating the prohibition law. It is alleged that Greenburg sold to one Daniel Garnett four half pints of whiskey, for which he was to receive payment Saturday. Greenburg was given berth at the City Hall, and his case will come up in the Recorder's court tomorrow morning.

Handsome New Residence.

Mr. Robt. H. Northrop, of the real estate firm of J. G. Wright & Son, has let the contract to Messrs. Reville & Comanche for the erection of a handsome two-story residence at No. 108 South Fifth street. The residence is to contain 12 rooms or more. Plans for the residence were drawn by Mr. H. E. Bonitz, the architect, and the building will be erected under his supervision. It is expected that the building will be completed on or before October 1st, when Mr. Northrop and family will occupy it.

The doctors said he'd have to lose his leg

That is what they told Mr. Joseph Braaw Jr. of Raleigh, N. C. They said that was the only way to save his life.

"I suffered over four years with a sore leg from my knee to my ankle", he writes in a letter to The Blood Balm Co. "I tried every remedy I could find. My leg was so offensive that I hated to go around among my friends. I was persuaded to try B.B.B. After the first bottle I felt better. And now my leg has all healed up. And I am in perfect health".

And Mr. Braaw's case is only one of thousands where this purifying and wonder-working remedy has completely healed those deep-seated sores and ulcers which yield to no other treatment.

Your money back if it fails to help you.

If the druggist can't supply you, write to The Blood Balm Co. Philadelphia or St. Louis.

Remedies are Needed

Were we perfect, which we are not, medicines would not often be needed. But since our systems have become weakened, impaired and broken down through indiscretions which have gone on from the early ages, through countless generations, remedies are needed to aid Nature in correcting our inherited and otherwise acquired weaknesses. To reach the seat of stomach weakness and consequent digestive troubles, there is nothing so good as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, a glycerin compound, extracted from native medicinal roots—sold for over forty years with great satisfaction to all users. For Weak Stomach, Biliousness, Liver Complaint, Pain in the Stomach after eating, Heartburn, Bad Breath, Belching of food, Chronic Diarrhea and other Intestinal Derangements, the "Discovery" is a time-proven and most efficient remedy.

Then again there's nothing to bolt for. What's the use of bolting for nothing?

It might be observed at this time that it is a waste of time to be going around running for a third term.

Can any of the old-fashioned ladies inform Bob Phillips, of the Greensboro News, what flavoring is best for a magpie.

Says the Charleston News and Courier: "It is estimated that one can buy enough gas with which to commit suicide for three cents." Yes, but who wants to commit suicide for three cents?

What Roosevelt and Taft think and say of each other simply confirms all the suspicions we had about them when they were in hearty co-operation at Washington. When men fall out they give eachother away.

Mr. John Wanamaker, the merchant prince of New York, says: "President Taft has never followed will o'the wisps and rainbows." Nevertheless, he has slipped up in his efforts to follow Aldrich, Payne and Smoot.

By the time the National Democratic Convention meets in Baltimore, the Democratic eligibles won't have any more respect for eachother than is entertained for eachother by ordinary Republican presidential candidates.

There is to be a joint debate over in the Sixth District between Messrs. Sinclair and Godwin in the Congressional race. That will keep the eyes of the people of the State on the Sixth.—Raleigh News and Observer.

A German paper says: "The Kaiser changed his mind twice in one day." That is nothing to boast about. Any individual who could not change his mind more than twice in twenty-four hours cannot be put in the same class with the Presidential candidate of the Seven Governors.

Former United States Senator Beveridge, in a speech in Indianapolis, declared that "the powers of pillage do not intend to let Republican voters nominate Theodore Roosevelt." Even so, watch Beveridge and his kind vote for the President nominated for them by the "powers of pillage."

Vermont Republicans have lined up with Taft. With the East and West against the nomination of Roosevelt, it seems that the two wings of the Republican party prefer to rally around either LaFollette or Taft. If Roosevelt had been a sincere "Progressive" he would have supported LaFollette and made a stronger fight against Taft.

The Republican party has stood pat so long and often that a voter who desires to look out for himself and his family cannot any longer stand for that party of privilege. The only two classes which can afford to vote the Republican party into office again are those who are enriched by the tariff and those who don't know they are taxed for the benfit of the aforementioned first-class.

Editor G. S. McKenzie, of the Robeson Advance, announces that Mr. A. P. Dixon, of Raeford, has become associated with him in the editorial management of the Advance. Mr. Dixon is a graduate of Davidson College, and in his senior year was editor-in-chief of the college magazine, a most excellent publication. Thus he has had some experience as a writer, and with his equipment as to ability, college training, and school teaching, he will be a valuable acquisition to the Advance.

ADVERTISING A COMMUNITY.

In the local department of The Star yesterday it was announced that an exhibit had been forwarded from Wilmington to Washington to be displayed in the building of the Southern Commercial Congress. It seems that Wilmington's exhibit consists of a large number of pictures illustrating the agricultural advantages of this region, together with a large number of views of Wilmington. These pictures no doubt will be entertaining, and possibly may attract some attention to Wilmington. We do not know what it cost to make such an exhibit, but while Wilmington sent her pictures abroad, Raleigh seems to put up hers at home. Leastwise, the Raleigh Times says:

"The Chamber of Commerce has gone to work to illustrate Raleigh's principal features and it is to be doubted whether any other place in the State is so fully illustrated. Photographs and pictures in colors adorn the walls of the Chamber and the collection will be further added to from time to time."

Our manufacturing establishments really do so little advertising themselves that it is a good idea for cities to advertise in all sorts of ways—both at home and abroad. Very few people have any idea what Wilmington manufactures, and we'll venture the assertion that an exhibit right in the city, together with information about our manufactories and their extent, would astonish the natives. Nothing is ever seen in the home papers about some of the manufactured products of Wilmington, for the manufacturers never advertise them and thousands of people do not even know their factories are here. However, we should advertise our cities so their own people will "know" them and so people abroad can find out about their advantages and possibilities.

Cities, communities, and even nations, are spending vast sums of money on different kinds of publicity schemes, and in this connection the Atlanta Journal says:

"From Brazil comes a unique and interesting bit of news. That alert republic is preparing to spend $5,000,000 in advertising its natural resources and the inducements it has to offer the investor. By this means it expects to increase its wealth and population and to attain a higher plane in the markets of the world. The development of the publicity idea within the past decade might be made the subject of a most entertaining history, and one that would reflect the country's broadening outlook. It was not many years ago that the town or city which advertised its advantages was considered as having done a distinctly novel thing. But today we find hundreds of keen-eyed communities bidding before the country at large for more business and more people. More recently still, States have adopted this aggressive policy, and it is gratifying to note that Georgia is among them. The rapid inflow of desirable settlers from the West who are now developing farms in our wiregrass section is largely ascribable to the consistent and intelligent publicity which the Chambers of Commerce and railroads have begun."

Brazil is not the only South American country that is advertising. Argentina is doing lots of it. We have even seen the advertising of some of the Central American States, and for many years Switzerland has spent thousands of dollars in publicity in the United States. However, with cities, States and Nations, it depends upon the plan whether they can expect results from their advertising. Resources can be advertised to advantage in an indefinite way, but well matured plans and direct propositions set forth in a regular system of publicity get the most attention and bring certain results.

HEARST'S ATTACKS ON WILSON

For some reason or other, the Hon. William Randolph Hearst is making extraordinary endeavors to prevent the Baltimore convention from nominating Governor Woodrow Wilson, of New Jersey, for the Presidency. Mr. Hearst's string of papers have been making a vigorous fight on Wilson, and owing to the fact that Mr. Hearst has only recently returned to the Democratic foald after having strayed away for several years, it amuses Editor Joe Reece, of the Greensboro Record to note that he is attempting to dictate the standard of Democracy and read Governor Wilson out of the party. The Record says:

"Some amusing things do happen. What a world this would be without them! Here is Hearst charging that Woodrow Wilson is not a Democrat; that he has never been one. Some men might make this charge with a measure of consistency, but the idea of Hearst doing it is ridiculous. Hearst has not only not been a Democrat, but right now would just as soon jump the fence and run as a candidate on any kind on an old ticket if he could find any set of men foolish enough to ask him. Hearst's attack is made in the Washington Post, a paper that is almost as yellow as the New York American or Journal."

We confess, we cannot see upon what reasonable ground Mr. Hearst is opposing Wilson. Of course, he has a perfect right, as an editor and a comeback Democrat, to criticise Governor Wilson, but he ought to be fair about it. Speaking about methods, we recently saw in Mr. Hearst's New York American an editorial that was discreditable in the extreme. It was an attack on Wilson disguised as an article lauding the country press. The country press received high praise and its power was strongly dwelled upon, but interlarded with what was highly pleasing to country editors with a vicious attack on Wilson. Of course, the purpose of the editorial was not to compliment the country press but the ill-disguised motive was to attack Wilson. The purpose was to get country editors to copy the American's splendid commendation of the press so the attack on Wilson could be given the widest publicity imaginable.

We do not know whether many country editors bit at the bait, but we hope they saw the purpose was to make a catspaw of them. What do you think of that as the methods of a paper which assumes to establish a new standard for Democracy?

THE TWO EX-GOVERNORS.

The Raleigh News and Observer says State Chairman A. H. Eller, of the State Democratic Executive Committee, has made a wise choice in selecting ex-Governor R. B. Glenn as the temporary chairman of the Democratic State Convention to be held in Raleigh June 6th. In that view our esteemed Raleigh contemporary states what will be heartily concurred in throughout the State. Ex-Governor Glenn is a true and tried Democrat of old, and nobody in the State ever battled harder than he for Democratic success and triumph in the years when his strong voice, great courage and splendid eloquence were needed. The Observer says:

"When ex-Governor R. B. Glenn makes the keynote speech of the great Democratic State Convention in Raleigh on June 6th, there will be heard an eloquent presentation of the position of Democracy."

It is understood that ex-Governor Glenn is most likely to be a delegate to the National convention at Baltimore, but so far as his choice for the nomination goes he says he is not bound to any one of the eligibles. He places himself in the position of going to Baltimore to carry out the will of North Carolina Democrats, and says he will support any candidate for which the State convention may give instruction.

The host of friends of ex-Governor Glenn furthermore will be interested in the fact that in Raleigh April 12, he will introduce ex-Governor Charles B. Aycock who is to make the opening speech in his candidacy for the United States Senatorship. The two ex-Governors are strong friends, and no one in the State is better prepared to speak of Aycock than his friend Glenn, who "knows" the distinguished man whom he is to introduce. Ex-Governor Aycock is to fire his opening gun and it is pretty safe to say that it will be heard all over North Carolina.

Since the above was put in type, the telegraph at midnight brought the shocking news of the sudden death of ex-Governor Charles B. Aycock at Birmingham, Ala., where he had gone to deliver an address on universal education. The Star's telegraphic columns tell of the distressing occurrence, and it only remains for us to express a sense of deep pain at what has happened to one of the State's most loyal sons and most beloved men.

Governor Aycock was one of North Carolina's ablest statesmen, and was one of the four distinguished candidates for the United States Senatorship to be filled next January. His death will cause deep grief throughout the State, and profound sympathy will go out to his bereaved family. The eloquent Aycock will always live in the hearts of all loyal North Carolinians, for it was his magnificent campaign in 1908 which redeemed our State from "fusion" misrule, political confusion, turmoil and despair.

CURRENT COMMENT.

"In the meantime Wilmington goes right on growing and going."—Wilmington Star. And Charlotte goes right on blowing and blowing.—Columbia State.

Senator Simmons should not distress himself unduly about any criticism of him that is made by Collier's Weekly, a journal which has acquired for itself the distrust of all who appreciate clean politics and fair play.—Charlotte Observer.

"As a Southern man," says Senator Simmons, "I am utterly opposed to aiding New England and the North in so using the tariff as to put down the price of the things they buy from us, whether they be the products of our farms or forests, and to put up the price of the things we buy from them." And in this position the senator is eternally right.—Kinston Free Press.

The Mexican Herald has been suppressed. The American consul, taking the side of its American publishers, has reported the affair to the Washington government. The arms and ammunition sent to Americans in Mexico won't help the Herald publishers in their present plight. The situation in Mexico, and especially the hostility to Americans, is steadily growing worse, and the day may come when even Mr. Taft's judicial conservatism will be unable to prevent radical measures.—Havana Post.

Robert L. Taylor, who died on Sunday, was one of the most popular members of the United States Senate. His genial humor and sunny disposition endeared him to all who met him. At the time of his death he was the strongest Democrat in his home State. Tennessee, which he had represented in both branches of Congress and of which he had been three times Governor. His death will be felt by the Democratic party there, still divided into bitter factions, the more so as it opens the way to the appointment of a Republican to succeed him, the first Republican Senator from Tennessee since Reconstruction times.—New York Tribune (Rep.)

Pototoes sold on the Chicago market yesterday at $1.75 the bushel, wholesale, the price a year ago having been 50 cents the bushel. This is the price for old, not new, potatoes. This should mean that truck growers in this section will get an excellent price for their product this Spring. The crop will not be a large one, it is true. Not a few planters have planted twice, excessive rains having caused the first planting to rot in the ground. Many, however, hope to get a three-fourths crop. If they do the promised high prices will more than recompense them for the loss in volume of product. Certainly not in years have the planters been in greater need of a good market. The storm last year destroyed all possible profit on cotton and few escaped without heavy losses. A good truck year will be doubly beneficial at this time.—Charleston News and Courier.

It has long been the judgment of The State that with Woodrow Wilson as the Democratic party's standard bearer this year unprecedented inroads could be made in Western States normally safely Republican. With Wilson for Presidential candidate we believe the South and the West would stand together for the first time, and the power of New York to hold the balance would be broken. There is a tremendous wave of progressiveness in the West and it has naturally affected the usually conservative Republican party most, and the unrest, besides giving LaFollette a large following, is such as to encourage the tempestuous Roosevelt to bolt when Taft is nominated. That opinion of the Western disposition is supported by a report to the Philadelphia Record by its Washington correspondent, who says: "It has been known for some time that the New Jersey executive was strong in Wisconsin, and today word was brought to Washington by L. W. Neiman, publisher and editor of the Milwaukee Journal, that in his judgment the State delegation would be made up of supporters of Wilson. Although The Journal is an independent paper with Republican leanings; Neiman declares that if Wilson is the Democratic nominee he will have the support of his paper in the campaign. 'I am satisfied that Governor Wilson will triumph in the Wisconsin primaries next Thursday,' said Neiman, in speaking of the political situation in his State. 'The people of Wisconsin believe in the things the Governor stands for, and I have no doubt he would carry the State, in the event of his nomination. It is a peculiar fact, but to my mind it will be many times easier to elect Governor Wilson than to nominate him. No Democrat has so strongly appealed to the popular imagination since the advent of Grover Cleveland as a National figure'. We believe Mr. Neiman accurately measures the forces at work and reaches a sound judgment when he says "it will be many times easier to elect Governor Wilson than to nominate him."—Columbia State.

Wilmington Lodge Host at Enjoyable Event Last Night

A most enjoyable event was the reception given last night by Wilmington Lodge, No. 139, I. O. O. F., to the three lodges of the order in this city, in honor of several new members who have just joined the organization and upon whom the last degree was conferred last night.

Mr. L. E. Thomas, noble grand, presided, and after the regular order of business had been transacted several short talks were made, among those who responded being Mayor Joseph D. Smith, W. H. Badon, S. R. Matthews and others. Mr. Thomas, in behalf of the order, in an able manner made everyone feel welcome and announced that some good things were in waiting. A bounteous feast, consisting of chicken salad, coffee, ice cream, cake, etc., was enjoyed to the utmost. The chicken salad was prepared by Mrs. L. E. Thomas. The reception committee was composed of Messrs. L. E. Thomas and C. Y. DeVane.

TURNED BLIND ALMOST FELL

Mrs. Hansen Says at First Her Case Seemed Hopeless, But She Finally Won Out

Mobile, Ala.—"For seven years," says Mrs. Sigurd Hansen, of this city, "I suffered with womanly troubles, and, at last, was operated on.

I felt better for a time, but soon I had the same trouble as before.

I had dizzy spells, and would turn blind and almost fall over. I had pains in my back and side, and was not able to work.

Half the time, I could not eat any breakfast, and I always felt weak and had a headache.

One day my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, and I tried it. I felt better, so I took some more.

Now, I am well and feel fine. My doctor says I am looking better than ever. I have a good appetite and sleep well.

It is all due to Cradui. I only wish every suffering woman would try it. They would soon feel as good as I do."

You may be sure, when Cardui will relieve and cure such a serious case as that of Mrs. Hansen, that it will, much more quickly and certainly, help those women who have no serious symptoms, but are just weak and ailing.

Are you?
Try it.

Good Meeting Last Night.

Another most successful meeting for men was held at Fifth Street Methodist Church last night and was attended by quite a large audience. Rev. M. O. Alexander, assistant pastor of the First Baptist Church, delivered a most pleasing and interesting talk on the subject, "Profit and Loss." The singing, led by a large male choir under the direction of Mr. W. R. Dosher, was also a feature. Tonight the last of the series will be held, and will be conducted by Rev. G. T. Adams, the pastor, who has been out of the city for some time and who is expected to return today. All men of the city are invited.

Pretty Mothers

Health is the foundation of all good looks. The wise woman realizes this and takes precautions to preserve her health and strength through the period of child bearing. She remains a pretty mother by avoiding as far as possible the suffering and dangers of such occasions. This every woman may do through the use of Mother's Friend, a remedy that has been so long in use, and accomplished so much good, that it is in no sense an experiment, but a preparation which always produces the best results. It is for external application and so penetrating in its nature as to thoroughly lubricate every muscle, nerve and tendon involved during the period before baby comes. It aids nature by expanding the skin and tissues, relieves tenderness and soreness, and perfectly prepares the system for natural and safe motherhood. Mother's Friend has been used and endorsed by thousands of mothers, and its use will prove a comfort and benefit to any woman in need of such a remedy. Mother's Friend is sold at drug stores. THE HOLLY TRIAL BEGUN

Nine Jurors in Box When Court Adjourned Yesterday Afternoon—Two Special Venires Were Soon Exhausted

Tried, convicted and sentenced to be electrocuted over a year ago, then granted a new trial by the Supreme Court, after a weary wait of months in jail, J. C. Holly, ex-preacher and proprietor of the burned Rock Springs Hotel, was for the second time placed on trial for his life yesterday morning, charged with the murder of his ward, Edward Cromwell, by poisoning, and when court adjourned yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock nine jurors were in the box.

The progres made yesterday is considered very satisfactory, and provided it is kept up today it is thought that by this afternoon the trial will be well under way. Two special venires were exhausted yesterday, one of 187, from which the nine jurors were secured up to 1:30 o'clock. From the second venire of 52 men not a single juror was secured at the afternoon session of court. Judge Ferguson presiding, ordered that a special venire of 100 men be summoned to be in court this morning at 9:30 o'clock, and it is hoped to obtain the additional jurors from this number. The nine secured thus far are: Messrs. G. T. Keen, E. E. David, J. B. Hunt, J. T. Canaday, W. H. West, Frank Herbst, LeRoy Batson, G. W. Shepard and A. J. Beach. They are in charge of Constable W. B. Savage.

Already the trial is attracting considerable attention from the public. The court room was crowded all day yesterday, and probably will be so all through the hearing. The Holly case has been followed with marked interest ever since the dead body of Edward Cromwell was found by firemen in the burning Rock Springs Hotel about two years ago. The firemen at the time reported that the boy had apparently been dead for some time, and Holly's arrest following set the flame of interest burning. The theory of the State is to the effect that Holly poisoned the boy for his life insurance, amounting to $2,500, which had been made over to the hotel proprietor only a few days before the fire, and then set fire to the hotel to conceal the murder. It was testified at the former trial that a considerable quantity of strychnine was found in the dead boy's stomach, and testimony was also introduced showing that Holly had purchased a quantity of strychnine a short time previous to the fire. The defendant was found guilty and sentenced to be electrocuted, but a new trial was granted by the Supreme Court. There is also a charge of arson against Holly, and he will be tried on this charge in the event that he is acquitted on the murder charge.

Holly was brought into court yesterday morning at 9:30. He appears to be in good health, considering his long confinement, and manifested a keen interest in the proceedings of the court, conferring with his attorneys, Wm. J. Bellamy and C. D. Weeks, Esqs., on frequent occasions. His face reflected somewhat the despair he felt when veniremen after veniremen was excused by his attorneys when they stated that they had formed opinions as to the defendant's guilt, and it brightened with a ray of hope when Mr. C. H. Keen, one of the veniremen, stated that he had formed an opinion that Holly was not guilty from his knowledge of the character of the man. It is understood that Mr. Keen will be used as a character witness for Holly.

The machinery of the court operated smoothly all day. Solicitor Henry E. Shaw is assisted for the State by Brooke G. Empie and Louis J. Poisson, Esqs., while Messrs. Bellamy and Weeks were at their posts for the defendant. When the venire of 187 men had been exhausted at 1:30 o'clock the nine jurors were in the box, and the court took a recess for dinner.

When court resumed at 4 o'clock the Sheriff's officers had summoned an aditional venire of 52 men, and these were examined at the rate of almost one a minute. At 5 o'clock the venire had been exhausted and not anothr juror secured, so Judge Ferguson ordered that the court take a recess until 9:30 this morning, and that another special venire of 100 men be summoned. The attorneys on both sides are hopeful of securing the three additional jurors from this venire, and of proceeding with the trial as rapidly as possible.

Prof. W. A. Withers, of the chair of chemistry at A. & M. College, Raleigh, one of the expert witnesses for the State, arrived yesterday morning, and also Mr. W. A. Scott, State Deputy Fire Insurance Commissioner, who is more specifically interested in the charge of arson against Holly. It is also said that Dr. T. M. Green, of this city, will be put on as an expert witness relative to the different forms of strychnine and the effects of the poison.

The only other feature of interest in connection with the court proceedings yesterday was the action of the grand jury in returning indictments against Messrs. George W. Britt and William Sheehan, on charges of nuisance in maintaining and renting disorderly houses. The bill against Britt contains two counts, the first of which alleges that on the 25th day of January, 1912, and on divers others between that time and the present, Mr. Britt did keep and maintain a certain ill-governed and disorderly house at 113 North 12th street, visited by persons in night and day, there to be and remain, drinking, cursing, swearing, using profane and indecent language, and misbehaving themselves unlawfully, and wilfully did permit, to the great damage and common nuisance of the citizens of the State there residing, inhabiting and passing, to the evil example of all others in like cause offending the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the State.

The second count charges him with renting a house at 113 North 12th street for immoral purposes.

The form of indictment against Mr. Sheehan is the same as that against Mr. Britt, the first count charging him with maintaining a disorderly house and the second charging him with renting a dwelling house at 1208 Chesnut street for immoral purposes.

NERVOUS WOMAN.

Lost Sleep and Appetite---Is Now Well and Strong.

If men only understood better how fearfully a woman's strength is taxed by her monotonous round of household duties, they would not be surprised at an occasional spell of "nerves."

When a woman is strong and well she does not know what it is to be nervous—it is only when she is weak that her nerves go to pieces.

Mrs. M. A. Robinson, of West Grove, Pa., says: "I had a nervous trouble for some months, affecting both my appetite and my sleep. Soon after I began to take Vinol I felt ever so much better and now I am as well as ever. Vinol did me a lot of good."

Our advice to all nervous, run-down women is—Take Vinol and regain your strength. then you will have no more nervous spells. This delicious cod liver and iron remedy without oil always agrees with the stomach, and it has made thousands of weak, discouraged, sickly women well and vigorous. We kuarantee it—money back if Vinol does not please you. Robt. R. Bellamy, Druggist, Wilmington, N. C.

THE RECORDER'S COURT.

Wm. Jones Sentenced to Roads—No Session of Court Today.

William Jones, a white man, was sentenced in the Recorder's court yesterday morning to six months on the county roads with privilege of County Commissioners to hire him out, on a charge of non-support. Jones was tried on the charge on the 14th of last month, and was let off to arrange bond. He did not do so and was rearrested Wednesday afternoon and sentenced yesterday morning. As will be seen elsewhere in today's paper, Jones was later hired to his wife for six months.

Geo. Hall and Jas. Murphy, both colored, were found guilty on charges of assaulting females and were fined $10 and costs each. G. T. Garrett and Walter Johnson, both white, were fined $10 and costs each for being drunk and disorderly. One ordinary drunk was allowed to pay a fine and costs.

As today is Good Friday, no session of the court will be held this morning.

The lot on which the building will be built is 55x66 feet in size. The building will cost between $8,000 and $10,000 and will contain all modern conveniences. There will be several five-room apartments in the building.

WHY HE DOES IT

Druggist J. Hicks Bunting Gives Reasons for Selling at Half Price

It isn't often that druggists have faith enough in the medicines put up by other people to be willing to offer to refund the money if it does not cure, said Druggist J. Hicks Bunting to one of his many customers, but they are glad to sell Dr. Howard's specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia on that plan.

"The Dr. Howard Co., in order to get a quick introductory sale authorized him to sell the regular fifty cent bottle of their specific for half price, 25 cents, and although he has sold a lot of it, and guaranteed every package, not one has been brought back as unsatisfactory."

He is still selling the specific at half price, although he cannot tell how long he shall be able to do so. Any person who is subject to constipation, sick headache, dizziness, liver trouble, indigestion or a general played out condition, ought to take advantage of this opportunity. If the specific does not cure them, they can come right back to his store, and he will cheerfully refund their money.

MAN HIRED TO HIS WIFE

W. M. Jones Servant of His "Better Half" for Six Months—It Was This or Go to the Roads. Commissioners.

Rather than go to the county roads to aid the already large force engaged in the construction of public thoroughfares to which he was sentenced yesterday morning from the Recorder's court, W. M. Jones, a white man, yesterday afternoon consented for the County Commissioners to hire him to his wife for this period. If he fails to support his wife or neglects her in any way he is to be re-arrested and taken to the roads to serve out his term.

This is probably the first time in this county that a man has been hired to his wife, but it is not the first in the State. Only a short time ago an habitual drunkard in Wake county, sentenced to 30 days on the roads, was hired to his wife for that period of time and one of the conditions was that he was to stay perfectly sober. Jones was sentenced in the Recorder's court yesterday morning with permission to the County Commissioners to hire him out. The Commissioners met in special session yesterday afternoon for a short time just preceding the meeting of the board as an auditing committee. Chairman D. McEachern presided and all members were in attendance, also Mr. John Haar, the clerk. Mr. J. W. Smith appeared before the board and stated that Jones had been sentenced to the roads for six months for non-support with leave to the Commissioners to hire him out, and he asked that the board hire him out. After some explanation of the case the board adopted the following resolution:

"That W. M. Jones be hired to Bessie Jones, his wife, upon the payment of the costs in the case with the understanding that if he fails to support or neglects her in any way that he be required to serve out his term on the county roads."

Wilmington township—T. O. Bunting and W. A. Williams.
Federal Point—S. T. Keyes.
Masonboro—Henry Horne.
Harnett—A. B. Sandlin.
Cape Fear—W. S. Cooper.

The clerk was instructed to notify all township assessors to meet with the county assessor, Mr. Thos. F. Bagley, at the Court House April 20th, at 10 A. M.

Upon motion $300 of the annual appropriation of $600 to the Wilmington Light Infantry was made available now. The meeting then adjourned as a board and re-convened as the county auditing committee. Mr. W. A. Williams, the clerk, was in attendance. The time was taken up mostly with the approval of bills and auditing of accounts.

The report of Mr. H. McL. Green, county treasurer, for the month of March, was as follows:

March 1st, balance on hand, general county fund, $21,537.38; special county fund, $47.61; road fund, $27,855.70; road sinking fund, $12,075.65; hospital fund, $669.32.

Receipts—To order to transfer from general to road fund, $505.72; special tax for and on account of hospital fund, $930; jail fees, $16.10; cash from county home, $47.98; cash from convict hire, $5.55; cash from stenographer fees, $1.50; cash from sale of rock, $1.50; cash from marriage license, $29.45; cash from cost in Recorder's court for the month of March, $493.85; a total of $64,217.31.

Disbursements— General county fund: by transfer to road, $505.72; by warrants paid: Public building $258.22; United Charities, $71.75; Superior Court, $395.19; jail, $154.25; Recorder's court, $322.32; outdoor poor, $256.24; county home, $435.46; election, $505.10; roads and bridges, $101.10; stationery and advertising, $7.75; magistrates, $7.62; miscellaneous account, $499.25; County Commissioners, $114; Register of Deeds, $28.30; superintendent of health, $150; county attorney, $83.33; constable, $20.25; clerk, $83.33; janitor, $50; treasurer's commissions, $51.72; hospital, $770.99; New Hanover roads, $2,859.47; a total of $7,731.36; leaving a balance of $56,485.95.

CHARMING SURPRISE MARRIAGE SOLEMNIZED LAST EVENING.

A pretty surprise wedding was solemnized last evening at 8:30 o'clock at the parsonage of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, when Miss Sarah M. Knight became the bride of Mr. Joseph F. Applewhite, Rev. Dr. A. D. McClure officiating. The young people took only a few friends into their confidence and the charming ceremony was witnessed only by Miss Fannie Branch, Miss Mamie Applewhite and Mr. F. Frank Brittain.

Mr. and Mrs. Applewhite will make their home at the residence of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Applewhite, No. 614 South Sixth street. The groom is connected with the local office of the Southern Express Company and is a young business man of sterling qualities. His bride is the daughter of Mr. Jas. N. Knight, of this city, and is a charming young woman. Both are very popular among a wide circle of friends, who will wish for them every measure of happiness and prosperity in their wedded life.

BAZAAR AT ST. ANDREW'S WAS SUCCESSFUL AFFAIR.

One of the most delightful affairs of the season was the Pre-Easter Bazaar given yesterday afternoon and last night by the Ladies' Aid Society of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church in Memorial Hall. It was unquestionably the largest and most successful affair of the kind ever undertaken by the ladies of the society. An affair on so an elaborate scale as this was made possible only by the erection of the Memorial Hall a short time ago, the building having been given by Mr. W. H. Sprunt. This is the first time that an affair of such magnitude has been given in the hall.

The crowd was large, both in the afternoon and evening. Last night, in addition to the other attractive features of the bazaar, supper was served to those who desired it and a most attractive musical programme was carried out, as outlined in yesterday's paper. "The Gypsies" sung by a chorus of female voices, pleased greatly and the Acme Male Quartette and St. Andrew's Harmony Club also rendered enjoyed selections. The ladies are highly pleased at the success of the affair and grateful to the public for the generous patronage.

ELECTION OF SOROSIS OFFICERS HELD YESTERDAY.

At the regular business meeting of North Carolina Sorosis, held yesterday afternoon at the reading room of the Masonic Temple, the annual election of officers was held, at which time the following ladies were chosen to lead the club for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. J. Walter Williamson; first vice president, Mrs. J. B. Cranmer; second vice president, Mrs. J. M. Solky; recording secretary, Miss Della Cline; corresponding secretary, Mrs. R. G. Grady; treasurer, Mrs. W. G. Bannerman.

The meeting was a very interesting one and was largely attended. Aside from the election of officers a number of other business matters were considered. The club is becoming enthused over the idea of building a club house and plans will be formulated in the near future for a home for the organization. It is felt certain that this campaign will be successful.

Under the efficient leadership of the retiring officers the club has had a most successful year and it is with feelings of regret that the members see them step down. However, it is felt that the selection of the new officers has been wisely made, and that they will faithfully carry on the great work of the organization that is doing so much for the betterment of civic conditions in the city and State.

TO ORGANIZE LOCAL HUGUENOT SOCIETY.

Miss Julia Merle d'Aubigne, daughter of the famous French historian of the Reformation, who is making a tour of the South organizing Southern Huguenot Societies, and who is in Wilmington for the purpose of organizing such a society, spoke to a good sized audience at the First Presbyterian Church yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock on the subject "Gospel and Temperance Work in France." Miss d'Aubigne is a forceful and attractive speaker and in her talk yesterday she graphically outlined the conditions existing in France at the present and the efforts that are being made to overcome the tendencies that are threatening a National degeneration. She spoke of the three great perils of the French people as she saw them; "The Black Peril," or Catholicism; "The Red Peril," or Atheism, and "The Yellow Peril", or intemperance, the last taking its name from the color of absinthe, the deadly French liquor. The wide spread of intemperance in recent years is a matter of grave peril to France, the speaker said, and she told of how societies are being organized to fight this drink habit. These societies are meeting with some success, though it is hard to convince the people that they can work without drinking every day. The need is for more workers.

The speaker outlined the plan of organizing Huguenot societies in the South, and particularly where there are numbers of persons of Huguenot descent. The dues are small and the meetings are not held except rarely. It is thought that a society can be organized here with a very large membership.

Miss d'Aubigne will speak to the ladies at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

"Polly of the Circus," a play that always pleases, was presented at the Academy of Music yesterday and last night, being witnessed by fair-sized audiences. The play has been seen here several times before, but always draws fairly large and highly pleased audiences. The cast this year is practically the same as last year and each and every member did work worthy of the play. Miss Ida St. Leon, as "Polly," is winning and convincing. Frank J. Woods, as Big Jim, the boss canvassman; Mr. Charles Doherty as "Toby", the clown, and Joseph Harris, as the "Reverend John Douglas" were excellent. In fact, as stated, the entire company is a very capable one.

Famed Narodny Next Tuesday.

Mme. Mieler-Narodny is a believer in the mystic powers of human life and looks at her singing as a mere interpretation of a divine chord in nature. In this respect she is a fatalist and opposed to commercialism of arts. She thinks neither music or any other art should be measured by dollars, and exchanged against the money. Having studied carefully the Christian, Indian and philosophic occultism, she is in her singing and feeling an Oriental.

"I sing only what I feel is inspiring to me. I like to sing my soul, and usually never think of my technique, audience and music. I live every song I sing, as well as I can. It is the vibration of my soul that tends to return to a supreme soul through those who listen to me. I wish I could sing without any formalities, tickets and commercial methods, which now exists and I think some day I will."

Mme. Narodny thinks that Tolstoy was the greatest writer who ever lived in this century. She knew Tolstoy personally and sang at his home.

This noted singer will give a special concert in Wilmington next Tuesday night at the Academy, and it promises to be one of the most brilliant society events of any season.

RAISING THE MAINE

The moving pictures showing the raising of the ill-fated battleship "Maine" will be the offering at the Academy Easter Monday. The films take you step by step through this, the greatest engineering accomplishment the world has ever known, showing in every detail the construction of the cofferdam, numerous panoramic views, showing every detail of the ship, close views of the part where the explosion occurred, a close view of the harbor mud into which the Maine had sunk 18 feet, in fact, every little detail connected with the ill-fated ship, better than the pen of any mortal could describe. The pictures were taken and are being exhibited by special permission of the United States government, and are being received by enthusiastic audiences wherever they are shown.

A special matinee performance will be given Monday afternoon, commencing at 3:30 o'clock, when the price will be 10 cents. Two exhibitions, beginning at 8 and 9:15 o'clock, will be given Monday night. The prices then will be 10 and 20 cents.

At The Grand

Wednesday a great historical picture; Thursday, the presentation of the masterpiece of Whittier, and today, the climax, "Incidents of the Dunbar, Delhi, India, December, 1911." This is an Edison film of great and unusual interest. It is almost beyond the conception of people engaged in every-day occupations to realize the real splendor with which our Oriental brothers celebrate on such an occasion as that set aside for the proclamation of their Majesties, King George V. and Queen Mary, Emperor and Empress of India. This Edison production depicts all the important features, the Edison Company having sent a picked company over there last December to get the film. The picture shows the magnificent military procession, more than six miles long, with thousands of soldiers on horses, camels, and on foot, constituting what is known as the "State Entry." There is a grand military review. Soldiers and spectators form a great spectacle reaching far beyond the vision of the eye. As an educational film this ranks among the foremost, and will be long remembered by all who see it. "The Girl and Her Trust," a Biograph picture, in which the girl operator at a little backwoods station, risks her life to save a box of money consigned to a construction company, ends with the most spectacular and thrilling pursuit after the robbers ever depicted on a film. Still a third picture of merit will fill in the usual number for the day.

Cottolene, a pure, vegetable product, is fast replacing hog lard for frying and shortening. It makes better, more healthful food — and is more economical. Cottolene is economical because it goes one-third farther than butter or lard.

Cottolene is packed in air-tight tins, never sold in bulk, and its purity and freshness are guaranteed.

A SHARP ADVANCE IN COTTON

Market Was Very Active and Prices Made New High Records for the Movement—Floods Cause Apprehension.

New York, April 4.—The cotton market was active today and there was a sharp advance in prices which made new high records for the movement, with December contracts selling above 11 cents on urgent covering and fresh buying, inspired by apprehensions of serious floods in the Central belt. The close was firm at a net advance of from 15 to 26 points.

The market opened steady at an advance of 2 to 4 points in sympathy with steady Liverpool cables. There was enough realizing to cause some irregularity right after the call, particularly as the weather map was favorable, but the flood situation in the Mississippi valley, private estimates of a 20 per cent. reduction in acreage and the Western belt forecast for increasingly cloudy or unsettled conditions soon inspired active covering. The advance was checked around 10.80 for July, or about 16 to 17 points above the closing figures of yesterday by realizing, but shorts evidently continued very nervous and following reports from New Orleans that levees had broken below Memphis, prices firmed up again. Trading was particularly active in the last hour when the advance uncovered stop orders and the highest point was reached in the late trading when July sold at 10.86 and December at 11.02. The close was only a point or two off from the best under realizing. While trading was very active fresh business was undoubtedly restricted by the holidays as all the contract markets will be closed from today until Monday morning. Liverpool will remain closed until Tuesday and the buying was supposed to be chiefly in the way of covering. Reports of a continued firm spot situation in the South and rumors that the British coal mines might resume operations after the holidays, probably added to the strength of the market. The talk around the ring, however, attributed the advance chiefly to a scare of shorts over the reports of serious floods in the South. Memphis was a large buyer here during the day and it was reported that large Wall Street and up-town shorts were covering.

Receipts 33,840 bales, against 20,982 last week and 4,981 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 3,292 against 1,929 last year; at Houston 5,731 against 1,684 last year, and at Galveston 5,996 against 1,548 last year.

Spot closed quiet, 15 points higher; middling uplands, 11.60; middling gulf, 11.25; no sales.

GREAT ACTIVITY IN STOCKS

The Market Threw Off Its Apathy of Two Preceding Sessions and Resumed Its Up Movement. Large Dealings.

New York, April 4.—Contrary to general expectations today's stock market threw off its apathy of the two preceding sessions and resumed its up movement of last month. Steel assumed its former leadership and sold up to 71⅛, its best quotation since last September. Dealings in this stock aggregated about 250,000 shares, or almost 30 per cent. of the whole. The activity and strength of steel was concurrent with the public offering of the $30,500,000 5 per cent. subsidiary bonds recently issued by the corporation, and the celerity with which these were taken was regarded as a favorable sign not only in its bearing upon the general financial situation, but in the confidence it appeared to imply in the future of the steel industry.

Today's advance embraced some of the equipment shares and the American Can issues, both the common and preferred making new high records. The Tobacco stocks all moved in spectacular fashion. Liggett and Myers rose 7 points, with advances of 3½ in Lorillard, 4½ in American Tobacco and 4⅝ in American Snuff. Undoubtedly some impetus was given to these shares by the decision of a majority of the Judiciary Committee of the United States Senate, which held that the opposition of the Independent manufacturers to the dissolution of the American Tobacco Company was without valid foundation. Dealings fell off in the later session, but the move at this time was most prominent in the standard railway group, including Hill issues, St. Paul, Union Pacific and Lonisville and Nashville. Money on call rose to 5 per cent., the highest figures since last January just before the close, but it failed to produce any impression upon prices, final quotations being at or very near the day's best.

Judging from today's market, the interests back of the rise are giving themselves no concern respecting the monetary situation. Local banks suffered another drain by the heavy withdrawals for out of town institutions, especially in the West and Southwest, where money is in demand to meet revived business conditions.

A further rise of 3⅝ in Canadian Pacific was explained in the road's gross gain of $630,000 for the fourth week of March. Norfolk and Western increased its February net by $142,000; Chesapeake and Ohio by $128,000. Seaboard Air Line fell behind by $130,000.

Bonds were firm, with no especial feature. Total sales, par value, amounted to $3,755,000. United States government bonds were unchanged. Total sales today, 883,300 shares.

Great Display of Latest Spring Fashions; Now Ready for Your Selection.

WHEN you come to see us about clothes for Spring—we hope to see you soon—you're certain to be impressed with several things about our store, and our goods; and whether you buy your clothes here or somewhere else, we want you to know these things about us.

Good clothes are something men need; one of the things we want to tell you is that we appreciate how much it means to most of you to get good clothes; to get value for the money; to receive, when you buy, goods that are worth while. We have some knowledge about these things; it's natural that we should use that knowledge in your interest; there's no reason why we shouldn't use it in your interest. The result of so employing our knowledge of good clothes is a big stock of fine suits. We mention these particularly because we know they're the best clothes made; because they're better in style, in quality of materials, in tailoring, than any other clothes. If we didn't think so, we'd find clothes we did think so about.

Special Styles for Young Men.

You young men want stylish clothes; you're so particular about the distinction of fashion, the "snap," the extreme models, the lively patterns and colors, that maybe you've neglected a little the things back of the style. Being particular about style is a good thing; be particular. But if your clothes are half cotton, and cheaply tailored, where's your style going to be in a few weeks' wear?

Just think that over. We'll give you style all right; but better have style that stays stylish.

HITS HIS OPPONENTS

Roosevelt Charges Them With Using Unfair Methods

Parkersburg, W. Va., April 4.—Striking severely at his political opponents here, Colonel Roosevelt charged them in a speech tonight with using unfair methods in an effort to defeat him at the convention soon to be held in this city. The former President said he had been informed that plans were being made to turn the Wood county convention against him in spite of the fact that it had been represented to him that a large majority of the people were on the Roosevelt side. The colonel appealed to the people to do all that lay within their power to make the convention one which would be a fair expression of the popular will.

Colonel Roosevelt's speech was delivered at the close of the second day of his campaign in West Virginia and Kentucky. He made two speeches in Parkersburb.

The auditorium in which Colonel Roosevelt spoke tonight was altogether too small for the crowd which sought admission.

A platform had been erected in front o fthe Court House and the colonel made an address there to an overflow meeting.

Colonel Roosevelt dwelt at length on what he said he regarded as the fundamental issue in this campaign. This issue, he said, was best expressed in the sentence which he is now interjecting into almost every speech, to the effect that the country must be "a pretty good place for all of us if it is to be a good place for any of us."

He argued as he did in Louisville last night, that to insure the future peace and happiness of the people of this country it is necessary that the people control the machinery of government more directly.

Colonel Roosevelt spent the day before reaching Parkersburg in riding along the south shore of the Ohio river. Reaching Cincinnati early today he turned eastward, traveling across Kentucky and West Virginia. As he entered this State he was met by Governor Glasscock who acted as pilot for the remainder of the day's journey and introduced the colonel to the crowds.

Colonel Roosevelt was called from his car to make short speeches to the crowds at Covington, Augusta and Maysville, Ky., and at Point Pleasant and Ravenswood, W. Va. At Huntington, W. Va., one of the largest crowds Colonel Roosevelt has seen on this campaign met him. Special trains brought in from the adjacent counties thousands of persons who gave the colonel a lively reception.

Colonel Roosevelt left late tonight for Martinsburg, W. Va. He is to speak in Martinsburg in the morning and then will begin the journey to Chicago.

AMHERST DEFEATS TRINITY

Massachusetts Boys Win Game By Score of Seven to Two

(Special Star Telegram.)

Durham, N. C., April 4.—In the first of a series of two games with Amherst here this afternoon, the Massachusetts boys defeated Trinity by the score of 7 to 2.

Trinity played perhaps the sorriest game of the season so far and costly errors were the cause of the defeat. Spence, for the locals threw wild over the first baseman's head three times and was taken out of the game. The line-up was somewhat changed after this, but it was too late to get a lead over Amherst. Boshammer pitched a good game and had every man played as well as he, the score would have been different, for the visitors played excellent ball, getting two two-baggers and a single. The score—

Amherst ....002 102 110—7
Trinity ....000 001 010—2

Batteries: Trinity, Bosshammer, McLean and Bond; Amherst, Vernon and Strahon. Stolen bases, Fitts, Foushee; double plays, Spence to J. Thompson to Fuller; Anderson to J. Thompson to Fuller; Strahan to Fitts to Strahan; bases on balls, Boshammer 3; hit by pitched ball, Fuller; Struck out by Vernon 5; Boshammer 5. Time two hours; umpire, Rowe.

BASEBALL YESTERDAY

At Baltimore: Princeton 6; Johns Hopkins 0.

At Washington: Georgetown 3; Yale 2.

At Washington: Catholic University 4; Holy Cross 2.

Lexington, Kentucky: Washington and Lee defeated St. John's 3 to 0 and Rutgers defeated Virginia Military Institute 11 to 8.

At Raleigh, N. C.: Eastern College of Virginia 6; A. & M. 3.

At Greenville, S. C.: Furman 6; College of Charleston 5.

Greensboro, N. C.: The second team of the New York Nationals, in charge of Arthur Devlin, defeated the local club of the Carolina Association, 14 to 1 today. Bue's home run was a feature.

At Asheville: Bingham Military Institute 3; Kings College 0.

Second Game: Bingham 7; Kings College 2.

SITUATION STILL MUDDLED.

Wilson and Clark Can't Find Out Who Has Delegates.

Milwaukee, Wis., April 4.—Instead of becoming clarified with regard to the delegate situation in Wisconsin between Wilson and Clark, it is becoming more muddled.

The only thing cleared up today was the result in the ninth district, in which both the Wilson district delegates were elected.

On the other hand, the Sixth district, which had been given to Wilson, went over into the doubtful column. The Eighth district also remained doubtful.

Tonight Wilson had 19 delegates certain, including the delegate at large. Clark had four district delegates certain. Two were in doubt. This, with one independent, makes up the 26 delegates from the State.

WAKE COUNTY POLITICS.

Best Men Hesitate to Run Owing to Factional Fight.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., April 4.—Wake county Democratic primaries are to be held June 1st, and there is earnest effort just now to bridge the chasm of party factionalism and get out a harmony ticket for the Legislature that will remove the possibility of party bitterness. All the present county officers are sure of being continued in office, except for a fight over the commissioners. The Legislature is the chief concern. The best men of the county hesitate to stand for Senate or House unless both factions of the party will pledge support. Ex-Judge R. W. Winston, it is declared, would make an especially strong senator, but he will not undertake it unless he has full endorsement. Mr. R. N. Simms is in the same attitude. Bart M. Gatling and E. C. Beddingfield, former corporation commissioner, are also being mentioned, but they also would insist on more than factional support. Among those mentioned for the House are K. B. Johnson, of Cardenas; Ernest Mills, White Oak; W. A. Griffin, Wendell; O. K. Holding, Wake Forest; J. C. Little and J. W. Bunn, Raleigh.

The Raleigh Chamber of Commerce is arranging for a great inter-collegiate debate to be held in the big new auditorium here about April 19th, the question under debate being "International Peace." Indications now are that seven and possibly ten colleges will enter the contest, making the affair the greatest intercollegiate debate ever held in the State. Especially desirable prizes are to be put up and the determination is to make the affair especially notable in every way.

WENT AFTER TAMMANY.

Delegate Wants Its Activity Confined to Manhattan.

New York, April 4.—The proceedings of the Democratic State Committee, which met here today for organization, were enlivened by the introduction of a resolution by Henry P. Keith, representing the First district, which declared that "the future welfare and success of the Democratic party in the State requires that Chas. F. Murphy and Tammany Hall confine their activities to the Borough of Manhattan, City of New York. "The report was tabled and the only vote against its being tabled was made by Mr. Keith.

Secretary Mason read a protest declaring that Mr. Keith's election as committeeman had not been regular and a committee was appointed to investigate his status.

George H. Palmer, of Schoharie county, was re-elected chairman of the committee. In an address he urged that all differences within the party be forgotten and that the members unite to win success over a divided opposition.

"We should select safe and sane candidates, adopt a safe and sane platform and make the tariff the paramount issue," he said.

The four delegates at large to the Democratic National Convention to be selected at the convention, it was announced, will be chosen from the following: Isidor Strauss, Samuel Untermyer, Governor Dix, United States Senator O'Gorman, Charles F. Murphy, Alton B. Parker, William J. Gaynor and Herman Ridder.

ROCK HILL PLAN

Estimate of Acreage Reduction Placed At 25 Per Cent.

Columbia, S. C., April 4.—Commissioners of Agriculture of seven of the principal cotton States making report to E. J. Watson, president of the Southern Cotton Congress, placed the estimate of reduction of acreage at from 15 to 25 per cent. This reduction, in the opinion of Mr. Watson, has been brought about by the "working of the Rock Hill plan" and the wet season. The information was furnished as a result of a letter sent out a week ago by Mr. Watson to all cotton States. Replies were received from Georgia, Alabama, North Carolina, Mississippi, Oklahoma, Texas and Tennessee.

A similar condition, he says, exists in South Carolina.

New York, April 4.—At the telegraph request of the victim's mother, Mrs. Doyle, of Asheville, N. C., the coroner today postponed until Saturday, next, the inquest into the death of Mrs. Kathleen Leslie Lorillard, who killed herself in the Holland House here a few days ago. The inquest was to have been held tomorrow, but Mrs. Doyle asked for time in order to reach the city. A preliminary inquest already held brought out that Mrs. Lorillard had left a note saying the she was "tired of it all."

Nashville, Tenn., April 4.—After lying in state at the capitol all day the body of Senator Robert Love Taylor was removed to the station at 6 o'clock this evening, accompanied by an escort of honor. A special train was in waiting for the funeral party and at 9:30 tonight it left for Knoxville. The train will reach Knoxville early tomorrow where the funeral will be held.

CATARRH EASILY CONQUERED

Germs Destroyed; Discharge Stopped; Sore Membrane Quickly Healed — Often Restores Hearing.

HYOMEI, a pleasant antiseptic, germ-destroying, vaporized air breathed over the entire membrane of the nose and throat and deep into the lungs over the bronchial or air tubes will kill catarrh germs; soothe and heal the sore catarrhal spots and stop the discharge of mucus in a few days.

Sprays, douches, snuffs or ointments won't end catarrh because they are not penetrating enough to get where the germs are.

So surely does HYOMEI (pronounced High-o-me) clear up the head and penetrate into the innermost recesses of the entire nasal tract that it very often drives out the catarrhal conditions in the tubes that connect the ears with the nose and by so doing restores hearing to persons who believed they were destined to be deaf for life.

If you have catarrh, dear reader, do not forget that HYOMEI is a wonderful remedy for catarrh and is free from cocaine, or any other injurious drug.

A complete outfit, which includes a hard rubber pocket inhaler, costs $1.00. If you already own an inhaler you can get a bottle of HYOMEI for only 50 cents at pharmacists the world over.

R. R. Bellamy guarantees it.

COMMITTED TO JAIL.

Chief of Police Who Shot Man at Clyde Was Not Allowed Bail.

Raleigh, N. C., April 4.—At Waynesville, N. C., tonight Chief of Police Rogers, of Clyde, Haywood county, who is also a deputy sheriff of the county, was committed to the county jail without bond, on the charge of murdering young Lee Wells last Friday night at a school closing exercises at Clyde.

Rogers had been out on bond of $5,000 several days following the coroner's verdict, but at the preliminary hearing at Canton today the evidence was so strong that bail was refused entirely and he was taken to Waynesville jail to await the July term of Haywood Superior Court.

Another man named McCracken, whom Rogers deputized to aid him in arresting Wells, was dangerously wounded at the same time and is not yet out of danger. McCracken is said to have been drunk at the time and it is charged that Rogers knew his condition when he deputized him and the shooting followed. Four bullets were found in Lee Wells' body.
